The following is being added at the end of Article 2:

Specifically, this organization will establish and maintain a House of Orthodox Jewish Worship to provide Jewish religious, educational, cultural, and social and all other services to the Jewish community, especially to recovering addicts who struggle to find acceptance in other conventional social settings. It will follow the practices of Orthodox Judaism and customs as understood by the congregation's Rabbi. It will be empowered to contract, rent, buy or sell personal or real property, to provide a place of worship as well as a parsonage for the Rabbi, Baruch Levinger and his family. The Rabbi is the spiritual head of the organization and the final authority in all matters pertaining to Ethics, Spirituality and Religious Law. He has the sole right to determine which question or issues should be regarded as matters of Ethics, Spirituality and Religious Law.

This organization will do its up most to minister to those afflicted with or recovering from addictions of all sorts. Proactive mobile worship services and other spiritual outreach activities will be made available to the aforementioned populations wherever they may be found.

Article 4 is being amended to read: The manner in which the directors are elected or appointed is as set forth in the bylaws namely, election by a majority of the directors upon nomination by the Rabbi.

Article 7 is being amended to read: The manner in which the officers are elected or appointed is as set forth in the bylaws namely, appointment by a majority of the directors upon nomination by the Rabbi.
