Purpose of "Woman Stellar Foundation"

The purpose of the foundation is the implementation of programs of benefit, social and educational support to Latino or Spanish-speaking family groups residing in the United States, with emphasis on those with low economic resources. These programs are intended to support the well-being of the family, whether it be a father, mother and children, or single mothers, single parents, or couples of the same gender who are experiencing economic or emotional crisis situations, including individual and / or Group on topics such as; Management of stress and anger, allowing them to achieve self-control and emotional independence, thus contributing to the reduction of cases of abuse in any form and / or domestic violence or gender as well as child abuse. It also envisages the realization of aid projects of humanitarian order in: food, health, clothing, furniture, school supplies, toys, among others. Provide legal, financial and health counseling by professionals in each of the areas described. Implement programs that allow beneficiaries to improve their quality of life in material terms through the implementation of programs that offer financing to small family business initiatives. The foundation will also have an educational task that aims not only to advise but to educate parents in values. Provide training and guidance to couples in the premarital stage as a way to reduce the rate of divorce. Educate and advise adolescents and young people for the prevention of precocious pregnancy and sexually transmitted diseases. Train professionals who can act as monitors of support groups and family counselors prepared to guide, inform, and help emotionally healthy people experiencing difficulties and seeking guidance in community support centers created for this purpose. Educate people in trades that allow them to access the labor market according to their gifts, talents or skills. And help them to enter the labor market or start professional activities in their own way. As well as any other activity that is of benefit and benefit to the family group.
