ARTICLE VII
NOT FOR PROFIT

The corporation is a not for profit corporation under Chapter 617, Florida Statutes. The corporation is not formed and shall not be operated for pecuniary gain or profit. No part of the income or the assets of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of its directors or officers or any other private individual, except to the extent permissible under these articles, under Florida law and under Internal Revenue Code ("Code") Section 501(c)(3) or any similar successor provision thereto, with, including, but not limited to, churches or other organizations engaged in religious and religious-related activities. If the corporation ever has members, no member shall have any vested right, interest or privilege in or to the assets, income or property of the corporation and no part of the income or assets of the corporation shall be distributable to or for the benefit of its members, except to the extent permissible under these Articles, under Florida law and under Code section 501(c)(3) or any similar successor provision thereto. The corporation shall never be authorized to engage in regular business of any kind ordinarily carried on for profit or in any other activity except in furtherance of the purposes stated in this Articles of Incorporation for which the corporation is organized.

ARTICLE VIII
DURATION

The duration (term) of the corporation is perpetual.

ARTICLE IX
POWERS

Solely for the above purposes, the corporation shall have the following powers:

A. To engage in and transact any and all activities necessary in order to operate the New Foundation Ministries, Inc. and to organize and operate any other fund-raising activities which the Corporation believes to be necessary or desirable.

B. To exercise all rights and powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida on nonprofit corporations, including but not limited to those set forth in Florida Statutes Chapter 617 and the following powers: to acquire by bequest, devise, gift, grant, donation, contribution, purchase, lease or otherwise any property of any sort or nature without limitation as to its amount or value, and to hold, invest, reinvest, manage, use, apply, employ, sell, expend, disburse, lease, mortgage, convey, option, donate or otherwise dispose of the property and the income, principal and proceeds of the property.

B. To engage in and transact any other lawful activity, solely in furtherance of the above purposes, for which nonprofit corporations may be incorporated under the Florida Not for Profit Corporation Act, and any successor or amendment to the Act.

C. To do any other things as are incidental to the powers of the corporation or necessary or desirable in order to accomplish the purposes of the corporation.

ARTICLE X
TAX EXEMPT STATUS

It is intended that the corporation shall have and continue to have the status of a corporation that is exempt from federal income taxation as an organization described in Code section 501(c)(3), or any similar successor provisions thereto, and which is not a private foundation described in Code section 509, or any similar successor provisions thereto. These articles shall be construed accordingly, and all powers and activities of the corporation shall be limited accordingly. The corporation shall not carry on propaganda, attempt to influence legislation, or participate or intervene in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office to such extent as would result in the loss of exemption under Code section 501(c)(3) or any similar successor provision thereto, nor shall any part of its property or any of the income therefrom be devoted to such purposes.

ARTICLE XI
DISSOLUTION

On the dissolution of the corporation, the board of directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, distribute all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for charitable, scientific or educational purposes in such manner and to such qualified organization or organizations as the board of directors shall determine. Any of the assets not so distributed shall be distributed in accordance with the direction of any court having jurisdiction in the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for the above purposes of the corporation or to a qualified organization or organizations as the court shall determine. For purposes of this Article, an organization is a "qualified organization" only if, at the time of receiving the assets, it is operated exclusively for the purposes described in Code sections 170(c)(1), 170(c)(2), or 501(c)(3) and is itself described in Code section 509(a)(1), (2) or (3).
