No amendment to or repeal of this Article shall adversely affect any right of protection of any director of the Corporation occurring after the date of the adoption of this Article and prior to such amendment or repeal.

ARTICLE 10. INDEMNIFICATION

The Corporation shall indemnify any director or officer of the Corporation, who is involved in any capacity in a proceeding by reason of the position held by such person or entity in the Corporation, to the full extent allowed by applicable law, as presently in effect and as hereafter amended; provided, however, that the Corporation shall only indemnify a director or officer seeking indemnification in connection with a proceeding initiated by such person if such proceeding or part of a proceeding was authorized by the Board of Directors or if such proceeding was brought by a director or officer to enforce a claim for indemnification under this Article and a court or an arbitrator determines that the director or officer is entitled to all of the relief claimed.

By means of a resolution or of a contract specifically approved by the Board of Directors, the Corporation may indemnify an employee or agent to such degree as the Board of Directors determines to be reasonable, appropriate, and consistent with applicable law and to be in the best interests of the Corporation.

The Board of Directors of the Corporation shall have the right to designate the counsel who shall defend any person or entity that may be entitled to indemnification, to approve any settlement, and to approve in advance any expense.

Reasonable expenses incurred by a director or officer, who is involved in any capacity in a proceeding by reason of the position held in the Corporation, shall be advanced by the Corporation to the full extent allowed by applicable law, as presently in effect and as hereafter amended. Reasonable expenses incurred by an employee or agent who is involved in any capacity in a proceeding by reason of the position held by such person or entity in the Corporation may be, but is not required to be, advanced by the Corporation prior to the final disposition of such proceeding to the full extent allowed by applicable law, as presently in effect and as hereafter amended. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article, no indemnification shall be provided to any person if in the opinion of counsel payment of such indemnification would cause the Corporation to lose its tax-exempt status, if any, from federal income taxation.

No amendment to or repeal of this Article shall adversely affect any right of protection of any director, officer, employee or agent for events occurring after the date of the adoption of this Article and prior to such amendment or repeal.
