Article III - Purpose

The Corporation is organized and shall be operated exclusively for religious, charitable and educational purposes, including within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended. More particularly, the purposes of this Corporation are:

- (a) To spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the worship of God among its attendants and practice the Christian virtues inculcated in the Holy Scriptures by any and all means possible. Our commission is to teach the Bible clearly and correctly so that people can believe on Jesus Christ alone for the forgiveness of sin and believers can grow in God's grace. "And Jesus came and spoke to them, saying, 'All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth. Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age'" (Matthew 28:18-20).
- (b) To license, ordain, employ and discharge licensed and ordained ministers of the Gospel, and others, to conduct and carry on divine services at the place of worship of the Corporation, and elsewhere, and to collect and disburse any and all necessary funds for the maintenance of said Corporation and the accomplishment of its purpose within the State of Florida and elsewhere.
- (c) To handle affairs pertaining to property and other temporal matters as required by the civil authorities.
- (d) To make distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code as amended.
- (e) To educate the body of Christ through any and all educational means deemed appropriate.
- (f) This Corporation is also organized to promote, encourage, and foster any other similar religious, charitable and educational activities; to accept, hold, invest, reinvest and administer any gifts, legacies, bequests, devises, funds and property of any sort or nature, and to use, expend, or donate the income or principal thereof for, and to devote the same to, the foregoing purposes of the Corporation; and to do any and all lawful acts and things which may be necessary, useful, suitable, or proper for the furtherance of accomplishment of the purposes of this Corporation. Provided, however, no act may be performed which would violate Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as it now exists or as it may hereafter be amended.

Article IX - General Prohibitions

In order to carry out the above-stated purposes, the Corporation shall have all those powers set forth in the Code, as it now exists or as it may hereafter be amended. The powers of the Corporation to promote the purposes set out above are limited and restricted in the following manner:

- (a) No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its incorporators, officers or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to make payments and distributions (including reasonable compensation for services rendered to or for the Corporation or reimbursement of expenditures) in furtherance of its purposes as set forth in these Articles.
- (b) No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of Propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publication or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.
- (c) Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by (i) a corporation exempt from Federal Income Tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws, or (ii) a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

Article X - Dissolution

Upon the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, the Board of Elders of the Corporation shall, after paying or making provision for payment of all the liabilities of the Corporation, distribute all of the remaining assets of the Corporation to any organization designated by the Board of Elders of the Corporation which is of like faith and order and is exempt from taxes under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) (or the corresponding provision of any future tax law of the United States).
