Article III

St. Jude Melkite Church, Inc. (the "Corporation") is a nonprofit corporation organized and operated not for pecuniary profit. The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious and educational purposes as well as any other charitable purpose within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended ("the Code") or the corresponding Section of any future federal tax code. In furtherance thereof the Corporation shall have the power, by way of example but without limitation, to hold any property, or any undivided interest therein, without limitation as to amount or value; to dispose of any such property and to invest, reinvest, or deal with the principal or the income in such manner as, in the judgment of the Corporation's Board of Directors, will best promote the purposes of the Corporation, without limitation, except such limitations, if any, as may be contained in the instrument under which such property is received, this Articles of Incorporation, the By-laws of the Corporation, or any applicable laws; to do any other act or thing incidental to or connected with the foregoing purposes or in advancement thereof, but not for the pecuniary profit or financial gain of its directors or officers except as permitted under the state's nonprofit corporation laws.

Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, its assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of competent jurisdiction in the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes. No member, director, officer or private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of the corporate assets upon the dissolution of the Corporation.
