ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF BLAINE RESIDENCES CONDOMINIUM
ASSOCIATION, INC.

The undersigned by these Articles associate themselves for the purpose of forming a corporation not for profit under Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, and certify as follows:

ARTICLE I

Name

The name of the corporation shall be BLAINE RESIDENCES CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION, INC. For convenience, the corporation shall be referred to in this instrument as the "Association", 3075 Blaine Street, Coconut Grove, Florida 33133.

ARTICLE II

Purpose

The purpose for which the Association is organized is to provide an entity pursuant to the Condominium Act, Chapter 718, Florida Statutes, (the "Act") for the operation of that certain condominium located in Miami-Dade County, Florida, and known as BLAINE RESIDENCES.

ARTICLE III

Definitions

The terms used in these Articles shall have the same definitions and meaning as those set forth in the Declaration of Condominium, unless herein provided to the contrary, or unless the context otherwise requires.

ARTICLE IV

Powers

The powers of the Association shall include and be governed by the following:

4.1 General. The Association shall have all of the common-law and statutory powers of a corporation not for profit under the laws of Florida that are not in conflict with the provisions of these Articles or of the Act.

4.2 Enumeration. The Association shall have all the powers and duties set forth in the Act, these Articles, and the Declaration, and all of the powers and duties reasonably necessary to operate the Condominium pursuant to the Declaration, and as it may be amended from time to time, including but not limited to the following:

- (a) To make and collect assessments and other charges against members as unit owners, and to use the proceeds thereof in the exercise of its powers and duties.
- (b) To buy, own, operate, lease, sell and trade both real and personal property as may be necessary or convenient in the administration of the Condominium.
- (c) To maintain, repair, replace, reconstruct, add to, and operate the Condominium property and other property acquired or leased by the Association for use by unit owners.
- (d) To purchase insurance upon the Condominium property and the recreation areas and insurance for the protection of the Association, its officers, directors and members as unit owners.
- (e) To make and amend reasonable rules and regulations for the maintenance, conservation and use of the Condominium property and for the health, comfort, safety and welfare of the unit owners.
- (f) To approve or disapprove the leasing, transfer, mortgaging, ownership and possession of units as may be provided by the Declaration, and to require a standard background check or any further information deemed necessary and reasonable to reach a decision.
- (g) To enforce by legal means the provisions of the Act, the Declaration, these Articles, the By-Laws, the Agreement for Deed, and the Rules and Regulations for the use of the Condominium property.
- (h) To contract for the management and maintenance of the Condominium and to authorize a management agent to assist the Association in carrying out its powers and duties. The Association shall, however, retain at all times the powers and duties granted them by the Condominium Act, including but not limited to the making of assessments, promulgation of rules and execution of contracts on behalf of the Association.
- (i) To employ personnel to perform the services required for proper operation of the Condominium.

ARTICLE X Indemnification and Insurance

Every director and every officer of the Association, and every member of the Association serving the Association at its request shall be indemnified by the Association against all expenses and liabilities, including counsel fees, reasonably incurred by or imposed upon him in connection with any proceeding or any settlement of any proceeding to which he may be a party or in which he may become involved by reason of his being or having been a director or officer of the Association or by reason of his serving or having served the Association at its request, whether or not he is a director or officer or is serving at the time such expenses or liabilities are incurred, except when the director, officer or member is adjudged guilty of willful misfeasance or malfeasance in the performance of his duties; provided, that in the event of settlement, the indemnification shall apply only when the Board of Directors approves such settlement and reimbursement as being for the interests of the Association. The foregoing right of indemnification shall be in addition to and not exclusive of all other right to which such directors or officers may be entitled.

The Board of Directors may, and shall if reasonably available, purchase liability insurance to insure all directors, officers, or agent, past and present, against all expenses and liabilities as set forth above. The premiums for such insurance shall be paid by the unit owners as a part of the common expenses.

ARTICLE XI
By-Laws

The first By-Laws of the Association shall be adopted by the Board of Directors and may be altered, amended or rescinded in the manner provided by the By-Laws.

ARTICLE XII
Amendments

Amendments to these Articles shall be proposed and adopted in the following manner:

12.1 Notice. Notice of the subject matter of a proposed amendment shall be included in the notice of any meeting at which the proposed amendment is to be considered.

12.2 Adoption. A resolution for the adoption of a proposed amendment shall be by a majority of the Board of Directors and/or by a majority of the members of the Association. Members not present in person or by proxy at the meeting considering the amendment may express their approval in writing, providing the approval is delivered to the secretary at or prior to the meeting. The approvals must be:

By a majority of the votes of the entire membership of the Association and by a majority of the Board of Directors.
