We are I Love Inc.; a non-profit business to help people who are in need and living in the streets with no place to go - otherwise called a homeless person.

People living in the streets have many needs and reasons why they are living in the streets. They range from mental illness, retardation, being physically handicapped, elderly and unable to care for themselves, socially undesirables, black sheep family issues, unemployment issues, running from abuse issues and military veteran reasons.

We are the Homeless Helping The Homeless. We are I Love, Inc. We are homeless ourselves and want to make a difference by helping someone else. We are starting where we are.

I Love's foundational goal is to help a person who likes to live outside be able to maintain and grow towards living a better life. Many people who are homeless do not see themselves as homeless many see themselves as being free from life's stresses. I Love's goal is to help people who live in the streets by raising funds to be used to create relief centers throughout the state of Florida for the homeless. These relief centers will be air conditioned, access to hygiene facilities such as restroom and laundry facilities; to sponsor people who are interested in starting their own businesses. Help a family get into housing and many more needs that any homeless person may need.

Also I Love, Inc. will also be working to raise funds through a seasonal periodical for the homeless in the state of Florida.

The periodical will be working with the people who live in the streets. Work with them at their level to get them in a better mode to move off the streets.

Many cities there is a lack of shelters and very few jobs that work with people who have to live in the shelters for housing or have nowhere for shelter. People who do not have shelter have to sleep at bus stops, sidewalks, under the bridges and also have to carry all of their belongings to work. These are issues a person has to deal with who is homeless. Many cities have increased criminalization of life-sustaining activities making it even harder when working to get off the streets. It is not against the law to be homeless; instead our society looks down at the homeless.

It is very hard to move out of the world of homelessness on your own. Actually is impossible without some kind of help. It might be just a word of encouragement that helps but the most important is financial help. I Love, Inc. is about helping people financially and mentally who are living in the streets. We are homeless ourselves and are working to help other homeless people too.
