The terms for which the directors are to serve, and the method by which the directors are to be elected, will be stated in the Bylaws.

ARTICLE 7 COMPENSATION AND INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS, OFFICERS AND MEMBERS

7.1 Compensation. A director, officer or member of the Corporation may receive reasonable compensation for personal services rendered as a director, officer or member, or in any other capacity, so long as the services are reasonable and necessary to carrying out the charitable purposes of the Corporation, and may be reimbursed for expenses or advances paid on behalf of the Corporation, provided they are reasonable in character and amount and approved for payment in the manner provided by the Bylaws. Provisions relating to compensation payable to directors, officers or members of the Corporation will be stated in the Bylaws. Any such compensation shall be limited to reasonable compensation for personal services rendered to the Corporation, which services shall be reasonable and necessary to carrying out the charitable purposes of the Corporation.

7.2 Indemnification. Every director, officer and member of the Corporation will be indemnified by the Corporation against all expenses and liabilities, including counsel fees, reasonably incurred by or imposed in connection with any proceeding or any settlement of any proceeding (including any appeals) to which a director, officer or member may be a party or may become involved by reason of being or having been a director, officer or member of the Corporation, whether or not a director, officer or member at the time such expenses are incurred, but only if (i) the director, officer or member is not adjudged guilty of or liable for willful misfeasance in the performance of his or her duties, and (ii) in the case of a settlement before entry of judgment, the Board of Directors approves such settlement and reimbursement as being in the best interest of the Corporation. The foregoing right of indemnification will be in addition to and not exclusive of all other rights to which a director, officer or member may be entitled by law. Appropriate liability insurance may be provided for every officer, director, member and agent of the Corporation in amounts determined from time to time by the Board of Directors.

7.3 Interest of Directors, Officers and Members in Contracts. Any contract, whether for compensation or otherwise, or other transactions between the Corporation and (i) one or more of its directors, officers or members, (ii) any firm of which one or more of its directors, officers or members are shareholders, partners or employees, or in which they are interested, or (iii) any corporation, association, or partnership of which one or more of its directors, officers or members are shareholders, members, directors, officers, partners, or employees, or in which they are interested, will be valid for all purposes, despite the presence of such director or directors, officer or officers, or member or members, at the meeting of the Board of Directors of the Corporation which acts upon or in reference to such contract or transaction and despite his or their participation in such action. The fact of such interest must be disclosed to or known by the Board of Directors and the Board of Directors may, nevertheless, authorize, approve, and ratify such contract or transaction by vote of majority of the directors present. This section will not be construed to invalidate any contract or other transaction which would otherwise be valid under the common and statutory law applicable thereto. This provision is subject to modification by any conflict of interest policy adopted by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

7.4 Prohibition Against Self-Dealing and Excess Benefit Transactions. Anything contained in these Articles of Incorporation to the contrary notwithstanding, the Corporation shall make no payment that would constitute "self-dealing" as defined in Section 4941 of the Code, or that would result in an "excess benefit transaction" as defined in Section 4958 of the Code.
