Article VIII – Other Provisions

The property of this corporation is irrevocably dedicated to charitable purposes and no part of the earnings or assets of the corporation shall ever inure to the benefit of or be distributable to any director, officer or member thereof, or to any private individual or person; provided, however, that the corporation may pay reasonable compensation for services rendered to it and reimbursement of expenses reasonably incurred on its behalf.

No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation (except as otherwise permitted by section 501 (h) of the Code or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code), and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements), any political campaign on behalf or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

Upon dissolution or winding up of the corporation, its assets remaining after payment, or provision for payment of all debts and liabilities shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501 (c)(3) of the Code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations as said court shall determine which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

Having been named as registered agent to accept service of process for the above stated corporation at the place designated in this certificate, I am familiar with and accept the appointment as registered agent and agree to act in this capacity.
