foundations, and any other public or private sources:

(e) to generally perform any function necessary to engage in any lawful purpose or purposes not for pecuniary profit;

(f) no part of the earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its members, officers or other private persons, except that the Corporation may be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and products purchased and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes hereinafter set forth. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office;

(g) notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (i) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or (ii) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of such Code as it now exists or as it may be amended;

(h) the Corporation will distribute its income for each tax year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or corresponding section of any other federal tax code;

(i) the Corporation will not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or corresponding section of any future federal tax code without providing for fair, adequate, and reasonable compensation;

(j) the Corporation will not retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or corresponding section of any future federal tax code;

(k) the Corporation will not make any investments in such manner as to subject it to tax under Section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or corresponding section of any future federal tax code; and

(l) the Corporation will not make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

The Corporation shall have the power to:

(a) have succession by its corporate name for the period set forth in these Articles of Incorporation;

(b) sue and be sued and appear and defend in all actions and proceedings in its corporate name to the same extent as a natural person;

(c) adopt and use a common corporate seal and alter the same provided, however, that such seal shall always contain the words "not for profit corporation."

(d) elect or appoint such officers and agents as its affairs shall require and allow them reasonable compensation, if so voted by a majority of the Directors of the Corporation;

(e) adopt, change, amend, and repeal bylaws, not inconsistent with law or these Articles of Incorporation, for the administration of the affairs of the Corporation and the exercise of its corporate powers;

(f) make contracts and incur liabilities, borrow money at such rates of interest as the

Corporation may determine, issue notes, bonds, and other obligations, and secure any of its obligations by mortgage and pledge of all or any of its property, franchises or income:

(g) conduct its affairs, carry on its operations, and have offices and exercise the powers granted herein in any state, territory, district or possession of the United States or any foreign country;

(h) purchase, take, review, lease, take by gift, devise or bequest or otherwise acquire, own, hold, improve, use or otherwise deal in and with real or personal property or any interest therein, wherever situated;

(i) acquire, enjoy, utilize, and dispose of patents, copyrights, and trademarks and any licenses and other rights or interests thereunder or therein;

(j) sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, lease, exchange, transfer or otherwise dispose of all or any part of its property and assets;
