Article 16 Indemnification

The Company shall not sue and indemnify its current directors and officers to the fullest extent permitted under the laws of this state. Such indemnification shall not be deemed to be exclusive of any other rights to which the indemnified person is entitled, consistent with law, under any provision of the Articles of incorporation or bylaws of the company any general or specific action of the directors and officers, the terms of any contract, or as may be permitted or required by common law. The Company may purchase and maintain insurance or provide another arrangement on behalf of any person who is a Manager against any liability asserted against him or her and incurred by him or her in such a capacity or arising out of his or her status as a director and officer, whether or not The Company would have the power to indemnify him or her against that liability under the laws of the state of FLORIDA. To the extent that Indemnities have been successful or unsuccessful on the merits in defense of any action, suit or proceeding or in defense of any issue or matter therein, including, without limitation, dismissal without prejudice. Indemnities shall be indemnified against any and all expenses (including attorney fees), judgments.

finer taxes, penalties and amounts paid in settlement with respect to such action, suit or proceeding. The Company shall not settle any action or claim in any manner which would impose any penalty or limitation on Indemnities without Indemnities' prior written consent. Indemnities shall not unreasonably withhold consent to any proposed settlement. Indemnity shall notify in writing of any matter with respect to which Indemnities intended to seek indemnification hereunder as soon as reasonably practicable following the receipt by Indemnities of written threat thereof; provided, however, that failure to so notify the Company shall not constitute a waiver by Indemnities of their rights hereunder. The Company shall advance to Indemnities amounts to cover expenses (including attorney fees) incurred by indemnities in defending any such action, suit or proceeding in advance of the final disposition thereof upon receipt of reasonably satisfactory evidence as to the amount of such expenses. Indemnities' written certification together with a copy of any expense statement paid or to be paid by Indemnities shall constitute satisfactory evidence as to the amount of expenses. This Agreement shall terminate when Indemnities' services to the Company as director and officer end.

The undersigned incorporator hereby declares under penalty of perjury that the statements made in the foregoing Articles of Incorporation under the laws of Florida are true.
