ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

ARTICLE III-A

III-A.01 Not For Profit Nature

The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, scientific and educational purposes including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

The Corporation is not organized and shall not be operated for the private gain of any person. The property of the Corporation is irrevocably dedicated to its charitable, religious, scientific and educational purposes.

III-A.02 Prohibited Distributions

No part of the net earnings or properties of the Corporation, on dissolution or otherwise, shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, directors, officers or other private person or individual, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes of the Corporation.

III-A.03 Prohibited Activities

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on (A) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax as an organization described by Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (B) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

III-A.04 Dissolution

Upon termination or dissolution of the Corporation, any assets lawfully available for distribution shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code), including to an organization or organizations having a 501(c)(3) exempt purpose, which, at least generally, includes a purpose similar to the terminating or dissolving Corporation.

The organization to receive the assets of the Corporation hereunder shall be selected by the vote of a majority of the managing body of the Corporation and if the members of such managing body fail in such undertaking in any respect, then any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for purposes similar to those of the Corporation, giving preference if practicable to organizations located within the State of Florida.

In the event that the court shall find that this section is applicable but that there is no qualifying organization known to it which has a charitable purpose, which, at least generally, includes a purpose similar to the Corporation, then the court shall direct the distribution of the Corporation's assets lawfully available for distribution to the Treasurer of the State of Florida to be added to the general fund of the state.

III-A.05 Restricted Activities

No substantial part of the Corporation's activities shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene (including the publishing or distribution of statements) in any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office, if any such activity shall have the effect of the Corporation's potential loss of its status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code).
