Annual Report Filing Requirements

All Florida non-profit corporations are required to file an Annual Report each year with the state between January 1 and May 1. Under current law, a Florida entity which fails to file its annual report form as required is administratively dissolved by the Secretary of State's office. Annual Report filings must be filed online and cannot be downloaded. You may access the Annual Report form at www.sunbiz.org and click the icon to file an annual report. The filing fee is $61.25. If you need assistance with this report, please contact us at 770-638-3444.

SCAM ALERT!

Please be aware that many new corporations in Florida have received letters shortly after incorporating demanding more money in order to "finish the registration process." THIS IS A SCAM. The only fees required in order to properly incorporate/register your organization are the above mentioned fees. If you receive a letter requesting more money, feel free to fax/email it to us and we will take a look at it. DO NOT PAY THE FEE though, until we review it and advise you. You should also contact the Secretary of State and report the incident, so that they may have better information to address the situation. The Secretary of State Phone number is: 850.245.6500.
