Article VIII

The Corporation shall have no members.

No substantial part of the Corporation's activities shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, except as is otherwise provided by section 501(h) of the Internal Revenue Code. No part of any activities of the organization will include participating in or intervening in any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

No part of the net income of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributed to, its directors, officers, or other individuals, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services actually rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purpose and objects set forth in this Second Article.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any activity not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law.

The Corporation may be dissolved at any time by a majority vote of the Board of Directors of the Corporation who are in attendance at a meeting of the Board called for such purpose. Following such vote, the Board of Directors shall supervise the orderly dissolution of the organization, including the distribution of the remaining funds of the organization consistent with the purposes stated herein.

Upon dissolution of the corporation or the winding up of its affairs, the remaining assets of the Corporation shall be distributed to another organization organized and operated for charitable purposes, as described in Sections 501(c)(3).
