The following articles shall be amended and restated as follows:

ARTICLE III:

The Corporation is a nonprofit organization organized exclusively for charitable, religious, scientific, literary and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law, with its specific purpose to provide academic scholarships to support educational opportunities for students in need, and to perform such acts and carry on such business and affairs as may be permitted by nonprofit corporations under the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act (the "FNFPCA") and other laws of the State of Florida and the laws of the United States of America in order to accomplish the purposes set forth in this Article III.

Notwithstanding any provision of this certificate of incorporation or any provisions of applicable state law, the Corporation shall not have the power to carry on any activities the existence of which would cause it to fail to qualify as an organization exempt from tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law.

ARTICLE VII:

No part of the net earnings of this Corporation shall ever inure to the benefit of or be distributable to any of its members, directors or officers or any other person having a personal or private interest in the activities of this Corporation, and no substantial part of the activities of this Corporation shall ever be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements), any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office. The Corporation shall not be authorized to accept gifts or contributions or other funds for purposes other than the purposes of the Corporation hereinbefore stated.

ARTICLE VIII:

No officer, member of the Board of Directors, or employee of the Corporation or other person shall receive or be lawfully entitled to receive any pecuniary profit or benefit from the operations of the Corporation, except reasonable compensation for services actually rendered to or on behalf of the Corporation. A director of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or its members for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except to the extent such exemption from liability or limitation thereof is not permitted under the FNFPCA, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended. Any repeal or modification of the foregoing sentence shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Corporation existing hereunder with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to such repeal or modification.

In furtherance and not in limitation of the powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida, the Board of Directors is expressly authorized and empowered to adopt, amend and repeal the by-laws of the Corporation, subject to the power of
