Plasma Saber Instruction Inc. a Florida Non profit educational organization dedicated to the promotion of martial arts and positive geek cultural as a life changing force. Plasma Sword Instruction will instruct our brand of martial arts as an effective way to teach self defense, instill a positive identity, and inspire our charges to take control of their lives. The nonprofit is headed up by entrepreneurs, successful local businessmen, and lifelong martial arts practitioners; all who will lead by example and show the children, teens, and adults what a disciplined lifestyle can give them.

Plasma Saber Instruction exists because of the board members wanting to give back to the community that has supported them for over thirty years. The board members also noticed that there were people that were unable to obtain the benefits and opportunities that many others took for granted.

Our goal is to have a healthy and successful nonprofit that brings self defense, education, and coaching to our students. We plan to provide tutoring as well as life changing support. Our major objective is to motivate people to achieve all they can.

Our philosophy is: martial arts and geek culture can be used to encourage an optimistic individuality that inspires one to manage their existence. The second important goal is to promote a disciplined lifestyle.

Plasma Saber Instruction Inc. will target all people that live in a situation that does not allow them to benefit from positive role models, private tutors, or martial art instruction.

Our strength comes from our board members and department heads.
