ARTICLE IV NO MEMBERS

The corporation shall not have members and shall not issue membership certificates. The corporation shall not issue shares of stock.

ARTICLE V NOT FOR PROFIT

The corporation is a not-for-profit corporation under Chapter 617, Florida Statutes. The corporation is not formed for pecuniary profit. No part of the income or assets of the corporation is distributable to or for the benefit of its directors or officers, except to the extent permissible under these articles, under law and under 26 U.S.C.A. §501(c)(3) (also referred to herein as "the Code"). If the corporation ever has members, no member shall have any vested right, interest or privilege in or to the assets, income or property of the corporation, and no part of the income or assets of the corporation shall be distributable to or for the benefit of its members, except to the extent permissible under these Articles, under law and under 26 U.S.C.A. §501(c)(3).

ARTICLE VI DURATION

The Corporation will perpetually exist from the filing date of these Articles of Incorporation with the Florida Department of State, unless dissolved according to law.

ARTICLE VII PURPOSES

The Corporation is organized, and shall be operated exclusively, for religious purposes (including educational, charitable and scientific purposes that are related to and also in furtherance of such religious purposes), all in accordance with 26 U.S.C.A. §501(c)(3), including but not limited to:

proclaiming the gospel of Jesus Christ throughout the world; organizing and holding worldwide evangelistic meetings, seminars and conferences in cooperation with local churches and bodies of Christian believers; assisting the Church by developing Christian leaders and training disciples; strengthening the Church of Jesus Christ and local churches; providing basic resources to the needy, and in particular women and children at risk, in the name of Christ; and making distributions to or for the use of organizations exempt at the time of distribution under 26 U.S.C.A. §501(c)(3).

ARTICLE VIII POWERS

Solely for the above stated purposes, the corporation shall have the following powers:

- A. To exercise all rights and powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida on not-for-profit corporations, including but not limited to those set forth in Florida Statutes Chapter 617 and the following powers: to acquire by bequest, devise, gift, grant, donation, contribution, purchase, lease or otherwise any property of any sort or nature without limitation as to its amount or value, and to hold, invest, reinvest, manage, use, apply, employ, sell, expend, disburse, lease, mortgage, convey, option, donate or otherwise dispose of the property and the income, principal and proceeds of the property.
- B. To engage in and transact any other lawful activity, solely in furtherance of the above stated purposes, for which not-for-profit corporations may be incorporated under the Florida Not-for-Profit Corporation Act, and any successor or amendment to the Florida Not-for-Profit Corporation Act.
- C. To do any other things as are incidental to the powers of the corporation, or necessary or desirable to accomplish the purposes of the corporation.

ARTICLE IX LIMITATION

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure directly or indirectly to the benefit of or be distributable to its directors, officers or members (if the corporation were to ever have any members). However, the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered, and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article VII (Purposes) of these Articles.

ARTICLE X TAX EXEMPT STATUS

It is intended that the corporation shall have and continue to have the status of a corporation that is exempt from federal income taxation 26 U.S.C.A. §501(a) as an organization described in 26 U.S.C.A. §501(c)(3), and which is other than a private foundation as defined in 26 U.S.C.A. §509. These Articles shall be construed accordingly, and all powers and activities of the corporation shall be limited accordingly. All references in these articles to sections of the Internal Revenue Code shall be considered references to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as from time to time amended, and to the corresponding provisions of any similar law subsequently enacted.

ARTICLE XI
DISSOLUTION

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the board of directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, distribute all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific or educational purposes in such manner and to such qualified organization or organizations as the board of directors shall determine to be consistent, to the extent possible, with the purposes stated in Article VII. Any of the assets not so distributed shall be distributed in accordance with the direction of any court having jurisdiction in the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for the above purposes of the corporation or to a qualified organization or organizations as the court shall determine. For purposes of this article, an organization is a "qualified organization" only if, at the time of receiving the assets, it is operated exclusively for the purposes described in 26 U.S.C.A. §170(c)(1) or 26 U.S.C.A. §170(c)(2)(B) and is described in 26 U.S.C.A. §509(a)(1), (2) or (3).

ARTICLE XII BOARD OF DIRECTORS

There shall be a board of directors consisting of at least three (3) individuals. The initial directors are elected by the incorporators. After that, each director shall be elected by majority vote of the board of directors in the manner, and at the times, set forth in the bylaws. Any director may be removed by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the board of directors.

The Board of Directors of the Corporation consists of the following individuals:

Rashid Masih
17696 S.E. 117th Circle
Summerfield, Florida 34491

Vella Joyner Marshall
17696 S.E. 117th Circle

ARTICLE XIII OFFICERS

The officers of the corporation may consist of a president, one or more vice presidents, a secretary, a treasurer, and any other officers and assistant officers as may be provided for in the bylaws or by resolution of the board of directors. Each officer shall be elected by majority vote of the board of directors (and may be removed by majority vote of the board of directors) at such a time, and in such a manner, as may be prescribed by the bylaws or by law.

The officers of the Corporation are the following individuals:

Rashid Masih – President

Scott Vance – Vice President

Vella Joyner Marshall – Secretary

Martha Preston – Assistant Secretary

Manny Roman – Treasurer

ARTICLE XIV BYLAWS

The bylaws of the corporation are to be made and adopted by the board of directors, and may be altered, amended or rescinded by the board of directors.

ARTICLE XV AMENDMENT

The corporation reserves the right to amend or repeal any provision contained in these articles of incorporation or any amendment to them.

ARTICLE XVI
INDEMNIFICATION AND CIVIL LIABILITY IMMUNITY

The corporation shall indemnify each director and officer, including former directors and officers, to the fullest extent allowed by law, including but not limited to Florida Statutes Chapter 617. It is intended that the corporation be an organization the officers and directors of which are immune from civil liability to the extent provided under Florida Statutes Chapter 617 and other similar laws.

The amendments to these Articles of Incorporation were adopted by the board of directors. There are no members of the Corporation, and therefore, there are no members entitled to vote on such amendments.
