ARTICLE III. PURPOSE

The purpose for which the corporation is organized is:

The Corporation is organized and shall be operated exclusively for religious, charitable, food and nutrition service, health education, world mission agency and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or a related section of a successor statute (hereinafter "Code"). More particularly, the purposes of this Corporation are:

- (a) Our commission is summarized as follows: "And Jesus came up and spoke to them saying, 'All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth. Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing.
- (b) To ordain, employ and discharge ordained ministers of the Gospel, and others, to conduct and carry on divine services at the place of worship of the Corporation and elsewhere, and to collect and disburse any and all necessary funds for the maintenance of said Corporation and the accomplishment of its purpose within the State of Florida and elsewhere.
- (c) To accept, hold, invest, reinvest and administer any gifts, legacies, bequests, devises, funds and property of any sort or nature, and to use, expend, or donate the income or principal thereof for, and to devote the same to, the foregoing purposes of the Corporation. Provided, however, no act may be performed which would violate Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as it now exists or as it may be hereafter be amended.

(d) To do any and all lawful acts and things that may be necessary, useful, suitable, or proper for the furtherance or accomplishment of the purposes of this Corporation.

ARTICLE IV. TAX EXEMPT PROVISIONS

No part of the net earnings, properties or assets of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributed to its incorporators, members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on: (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

In any taxable year in which the Corporation is a "private foundation" as described in section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, the Corporation: (a) shall distribute its income for said period at such time and manner as not to subject it to tax under section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code; (b) shall not engage in any act of "self dealing" as defined in section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code; (c) shall not retain any "excess business holdings" as defined in section 4943 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code; (d) shall not make any investments in such manner as to subject the Corporation to tax under section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code; and (e) shall not make any taxable expenditures as defined in section 4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
