Dear Stacy,

Thanks for the information. RESTORE was initially filed as a For-Profit Incorporation, but should have been filed as a nonprofit. A dissolution request was made on the same day that I requested the nonprofit. I'm releasing the same name to be utilized for the nonprofit. Please let me know if you need additional information.

Sincerely,

Rebecca Davis
RESTORE-President

We received your online transmitted document. However, the document has not been filed for the following:

The name designated in your document is unavailable since it is the same as, or it is not distinguishable from the name of a voluntarily dissolved business entity. The name of a voluntarily dissolved business entity is not available for the assumption or use by another entity until 120 days after the effective date of dissolution unless the dissolved business entity provides the Department of State with a notarized affidavit, stating that they have no intention of revoking the dissolution, therefore, releasing the name for use to another entity.
