Attachment to Articles of Incorporation of KPlan Foundation, Inc.

Said organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under the section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. The business activity for said organization is as follows: KPlan Foundation, Inc. is a nonprofit 501c charity. The foundation represents 401Kplans.com and our family and honors the legacy and donor intent of its founders Scott R. Buffington and Kathy P. Buffington. These donations will serve the purpose of helping children and individuals that are associated with children with developmental delays, cognitive behaviors and pediatric cancers. Our main goal is to be able to help these children and their families get the services and support they need to thrive. KPlan Foundation will offer financial contributions and grants to help other non for profit organizations that serve children. Each child is unique in his or her own right, the foundation will strive to help those children affected by cognitive disabilities to ensure that they are given the help and resources they need to begin or continue their schooling years. KPlan Foundations legacy in part is to help with education programs serving children both globally and domestically. In our efforts we are guided by our commitment to helping children. We envision with hard work, dedication, integrity and charitable donations we will make a difference in many children's lives for years to come.

No part of the net earnings of this organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth herein. No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and this corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Upon the dissolution of this corporation, assets remaining shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
