TALLAHASSEE, FLA.

The corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, scientific, literary, religious or educational purposes within the meaning of §501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The corporation may also undertake such other activities as the Board of Directors shall approve so long as such activities are within the purposes permitted by these Articles.

To further the purposes set forth above, the corporation is empowered to accept gifts, grants, devises, or bequests of funds, or any other property from any public or other governmental body and any private person, who shall include, but not be limited to, private and public foundations, corporations, and individuals.

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its Directors, officers, or other private persons except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth above.

No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in, directly or indirectly, (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

If the corporation shall be determined to be a "private foundation" within the meaning of §509 of the Internal Revenue Code, it shall be required to distribute its income or other assets at such time and in such manner so that the corporation will not be subject to the tax under §4942 of the Internal Revenue Code; and further, it shall be prohibited from engaging in any act of self-dealing (as defined in §4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code), from retaining any excess business holdings (as defined in §4943(c) of the Internal Revenue Code), from making any investments in such manner as to subject the corporation to tax under §4944 of the Internal Revenue Code, and from making any taxable expenditures (as defined in §4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code).

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes of the corporation in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, religious, scientific, literary and educational purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under §501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as the Directors shall determine. Any of such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations as said Court shall determine which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under §501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under § 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code.

All references to the "Internal Revenue Code" shall mean the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law.
