Recruiting for Board Members

Board members will be recruited based on their experience, availability and what they can possibly contribute to the organization.

Some crucial qualities in the recruitment process will include an understanding of our community and its needs, passion for the cause, a willingness to commit time for board meetings, committee meetings, planning sessions, and special events.

A formal letter of invitation will be sent to the prospective member with the requirements for the position outlined, as well as a time for an interview with the board committee.
