The name and physical address of the incorporator signing these Articles of Incorporation as the Incorporator is: Anitrice McKinnis-Jackson-Jackson, 236 NW 16th Street, Miami, Florida 33136.

ARTICLE EIGHT
Powers

1. This Corporation shall possess all powers granted to a not-for-profit corporation under Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, and shall possess all powers necessary and convenient to carry out its exempt purposes. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Corporation shall neither have nor exercise any power, nor engage directly or indirectly in any activity that would invalidate its status as an organization exempt from federal income tax and described in Section 501 (c) (3) of the Code.

2. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of any director or officer of the Corporation, or any private individual; provided, however, that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the Corporation and expenses may be reimbursed or paid in furtherance of one or more of its purposes.

3. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation (except as permitted by Section 501 (h) of the Code), and the Corporation shall not participate or intervene in (including publication or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

4. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of incorporation, if this Corporation shall be, or shall be deemed to be, a private foundation as described in Section 509 (a) of the Code, then (a) the Corporation shall make distributions in each taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to subject the Corporation to tax under Section 4942 of the Code, and (b) the Corporation is expressly prohibited from engaging in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941 (d) of the Code, from retaining any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943 (c) of the Code, from making any investments in such manner as to subject the Corporation to tax under Section 4944 of the Code and from making any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945 (d) of the Code.

ARTICLE NINE
Dissolution

In the event the Corporation is dissolved, the Board of Directors shall, after all liabilities and obligations of the Corporation are paid or provision is made therefore, adopt a plan for the distribution of the remaining assets of the Corporation to other organizations with substantially similar purposes. If there is no successor organization or organizations with substantially similar purposes, then such remaining assets shall be distributed to one or more organizations that are organized and operated exclusively for charitable or educational purposes, and that are exempt from federal income tax under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Code and are not private foundations. Any of such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Probate Court of the county n which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes. No director or officer of the Corporation and no private individual will be entitled to share in the distribution of any assets of the Corporation in the event of its dissolution.

ARTICLE TEN

Bylaws

The Board of Directors of the Corporation shall have the power to adopt, alter, amend or repeal the Bylaws of the Corporation.

ARTICLE ELEVEN

Amendments

The Board of Directors of the Corporation shall have the power to amend or restate these Articles of Incorporation. Upon an amendment to the Articles of Incorporation being adopted, the amendment shall be filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Florida, in the manner provided by law.

ARTICLE TWELVE

Indemnification

This Corporation shall indemnify any officer, director, or incorporator or any former officer, director, or incorporator, of this Corporation to the fullest extent possible.

Having been named as registered agent to accept service of process for the above stated corporation at the place designated in this certificate, I am familiar with and accept the appointment as registered agent and agree to act in this capacity
