Rider 1:

Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not engage in any activities prohibited (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

The corporation shall not be empowered to do any act or thing which would cause it to lose its status as a not-for-profit corporation under the laws of the United States or of the State of Florida.

No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office

The property of the corporation is irrevocably dedicated to the purposes of the corporation. Upon the dissolution of the corporation, all assets remaining on hand, after the payment of and/or making provision for the debts, expenses and liabilities of the corporation, shall be distributed to any organization as shall be selected by the Board of Directors of the corporation and which is described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or in the similar provisions of any future Federal revenue law. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes and which is described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code; or in the similar provisions of any future Federal revenue law.

The private assets of the incorporator, directors, officers or members of this Corporation shall not be subject to payment of the Corporation's debts in any event or to any extent whatsoever.
