Article III PURPOSES
AMENDED ADDING

4. (A) The general purpose and object of this corporation shall be to act as a social service and referral service organization to assist individuals, particularly the at risk and disadvantaged and other institutions connected therewith of a religious, educational, charitable and benevolent nature, and to establish and engage in charitable, humanitarian and philanthropic activities to the benefit of the underprivileged members of society, creating programs for the chronically at risk. We endeavor to provide for the existence of structured leadership and organizational cohesion by the establishment of community-based initiatives via outreach programs, halfway houses, displaced families, and foster homes.

(B) Our Mission is to sow seeds of equivalent benefit to individuals around the nation by providing the tools needed to improve their quality of life through their pursuit of self-efficacy.

(C) To provide a form where the dynamism of the human spirit may be guided and molded into an effective organism committed through the need for fellowship and mutual support.

(D) The corporation is organized and operated exclusively for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501 c 3 of the Internal Revenue Code. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles the corporation shall not carry out any other activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501 c 3 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, (or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal Revenue Law) or by a corporation, contributors to which are deductible under section 170 c 2 of the Internal Revenue code of 1983 for corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law.

(E) Another purpose is a holistic approach to develop educational and artistic programs designed to mold individuals into morally responsible citizens in body, mind and spirit. To create a forum that effectively provides an avenue for exploring, developing and harnessing the potentials that exist within our youth and community. To redirect the youth angry, unproductive and negative behavior, replacing it with a positive life changing direction resulting in prepared, confident, and emotionally well-balanced people. To provide a wide variety of well-balanced and professionally directed programs, such as workshops, training, and other activities designed to interrupt patterns of poverty, criminal behavior, and low self-esteem. Education (Private School), Public Health, Transportation, Safety and Human services, Special

(F) Services for Handicap and Disable, Parenting programs, Food pantries, Job Services, Economic Development, Homeless Shelters, Senior Services, Day Care Facilities, Youth

Programs, Performing Arts, Music, Summer Camp and the create capital resources private and public. To safeguard and transmit to posterity, purity and righteousness of individual freedom, and assist in charitable work of any nature deemed beneficial and to the best interest of the order and to society as a whole and to raise funds for caring the same into effect in any manner allowed by the constitution and the Bylaws of the order permitted under the laws of the State of Florida and The Constitution of the United States of America.

(G) No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall insure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for the services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements) any political campaign on or behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other activities not permitted to be carried on (i) by an organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501 (c) (3) of the code; or (ii) by an organization contribution to which are deductible under section 170 (c) (2) code.

(H) Upon dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for much purpose or to such organization and operated exclusively for such purposes.

(I) To operate exclusively in any other manner for such religious, charitable, scientific purposes and educational purposes that qualify as exempt organization under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, or under any corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws covering the distributions to organizations qualified as tax exempt.

(J) To do any and all things related to and in connection with the carrying out of the object and purpose herein above set forth.

I submit this document and affirm that the facts stated herein are true. I am aware that any false information submitted in a document to the Department of State constitutes a third-degree felony as provided for in Section 817.155, Florida Statutes.
