(attach additional sheets, if necessary). (Be specific)

Amending Article III - Bright Lights-Crossing Borders, Inc. is an non-profit organization created exclusively for charitable, religious, and educational purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distribution to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations described under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Bright Lights-Crossing Borders, Inc. will work with various organizations, families and individuals that deal with abandon, abused, neglected and children who have lost parents. We will also work with organizations that assist the elderly. These organizations will consist of: children's homes; senior citizen's homes; church youth groups, etc. Our goal is to provide them with clothing (new and used), school supplies, toiletries, toys, personal items, etc. We will also donate to individuals and families that have experienced a loss due to natural disasters such as fires, floods, etc. that are not covered by personal insurance coverage. We are also organized to help individual students by giving them the ability to give back to their community and be a positive role model volunteering with Bright Lights Crossing Borders, Inc. during the various community events held donating to others as well as fundraisers. The students will have the ability to get volunteer hours which will assist them in meeting their educational community service requirements for high school and college graduations.
