ARTICLE IX
INDEMNIFICATION

Every director and every officer of the corporation, and every agent of the corporation serving the corporation at its request, shall be indemnified by the corporation against all expenses and liabilities, including attorneys fees, reasonably incurred by or imposed on the person in connection with any proceeding or any settlement of any proceeding to which he may be a party or in which he may become involved by reason of his being or having been a director, officer or agent of the corporation, or by reason of him having served the corporation at its request, whether or not he is a director or officer or agent serving the corporation at the time the expenses or liabilities are incurred, except when the director, officer or agent serving the corporation is adjudged guilty of willful misfeasance or malfeasance in the performance of his duties; provided that in the event of a settlement before entry of judgment, the indemnification shall apply only when the Board of Directors approve the settlement and reimbursement as being in the best interest of the corporation. This right of indemnification shall be in addition to and not exclusive of all other rights to which the director, officer or agent serving the corporation may be entitled.

ARTICLE X
BY-LAWS

The Board of Directors of this corporation may provide such by-laws for the conduct of the business of the corporation and the carrying out of its purposes as it may deem necessary from time to time.

Upon proper notice the by-laws may be amended, altered or rescinded by a majority vote of those members of the Board of Directors present at any regular meeting or any special meeting of the Board of Directors called for that purpose.

ARTICLE XI
AMENDMENTS

These Articles of Incorporation may be amended at a special meeting of the Board of Directors called for that purpose, pursuant to the by-laws, by two-thirds vote of those present.

Amendments may also be made at a regular meeting of the Board of Directors upon notice given, as provided in the by-laws, of intention to submit such amendments.

ARTICLE XII
PROPERTY

The corporation shall have the power to acquire and hold title in fee simple, in trust, or otherwise, to both real and personal property, and to improve, encumber, sell, convey, and dispose of all such property in conformity with the laws of the State of Florida.

ARTICLE XIII
NON-PROFIT STATUS

This corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof.

No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by an organization exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future tax code.

Upon dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by the Circuit Court of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization of organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE XIV MEETINGS

1. After incorporation, the appropriate members of the corporation shall hold an organizational meeting in accordance with Chapter 617, Florida Statute, as amended.

2. The Board of Directors of the corporation may participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through, the use of any means of communication which allows all directors participating to simultaneously hear one another. A director participating in such a meeting is deemed present at the meeting. In the alternative, the Board of Directors may take actions through signed e-mail communication provided all board members agree.
