federal income tax under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. No substantial part of the corporation's activities shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene (including the publishing or distribution of statements) in any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

ARTICLE XI PERSONAL LIABILITY

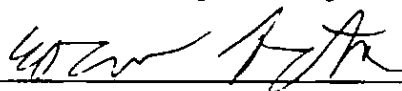

No officer or director of this corporation shall be personally liable for the debts or obligations of The Student Action Fund for any action taken or any failure to take action as a director or volunteer officer, except liability for any of the following: (i) the amount of a financial benefit received by a director or volunteer officer to which he or she is not entitled; (ii) intentional infliction of harm on the corporation, its stakeholders, or members; (iii) an intentional criminal act; (iv) liability imposed upon termination of a derivative proceeding due to it being started or maintained in bad faith or without reasonable cause.

ARTICLE XII DISSOLUTION

Upon termination or dissolution of The Student Action Fund, any assets lawfully available for distribution shall be distributed to one (1) or more qualifying organizations described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or described in any corresponding provision of any successor statute) which organization or organizations have a charitable purpose which, at least generally, includes a purpose similar to the terminating or dissolving corporation. The organization to receive the assets of The Student Action Fund hereunder shall be selected by the discretion of a majority of the managing body of The Student Action Fund and if its members cannot so agree, then the recipient organization shall be selected pursuant to a verified petition in equity filed in a court of proper jurisdiction against The Student Action Fund by one (1) or more of its managing body which verified petition shall contain such statements as reasonably indicate the applicability of this section. The court upon a finding that this section is applicable shall select the qualifying organization or organizations to receive the assets to be distributed, giving preference if practicable to organizations located within the State of Florida. In the event that the court shall find that this section is applicable but that there is no qualifying organization known to it which has a charitable purpose, which, at least generally, includes a purpose similar to this corporation, then the court shall direct the distribution of its assets lawfully available for distribution to the Treasurer of the State of Florida to be added to the general fund.

Having been named as registered agent to accept service of process for the above stated corporation at the place designated in this certificate, I am familiar with and accept the appointment as registered agent and agree to act in this capacity.
