ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF
SENIOR COLLABORATIVE OF INDIAN RIVER COUNTY, INC.

The undersigned, under the provisions of Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes, for the purpose of forming a not for profit corporation under the laws of the State of Florida, sets forth the following:

ARTICLE I – Name

The name of the corporation is: SENIOR COLLABORATIVE OF INDIAN RIVER COUNTY, INC

ARTICLE II – Principal Place of Address

The principal place of business and the mailing address of the corporation is: 1836 14th Avenue, Vero Beach, Florida 32960.

ARTICLE III – Purpose

The corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational or scientific purposes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time (the "Code") or corresponding provisions of any future federal tax code and to improve the quality of life of the aging and also assist their care givers and families in making informed decisions of services available in Indian River County. The corporation is intended to be an alliance of senior service providers, funders and advocates. By bringing these groups together we strive to coordinate a community partnership able to reach a broader audience of policymakers, service professionals, caregivers and older adults. The corporation may, as permitted by law, engage in any and all activities in furtherance of, related to, or incidental to these purposes, which may lawfully be carried on by a corporation formed under Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, and which are not inconsistent with the corporation's qualification under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

ARTICLE IV – Manner of election of directors

The manner in which the directors are elected or appointed is as set forth in the Bylaws of the corporation.

ARTICLE V – Limitation of corporate powers

The corporate powers of this corporation are as provided for in section 617.0302, Florida Statutes.

ARTICLE VI – Registered Agent

The name and street address of the initial registered agent is: Randy J. Riley, 1836 14th Avenue, Vero Beach, FL 32960.

ARTICLE VII – Incorporator

The name and street address of the incorporator for these articles of incorporation is: Randy J. Riley, 1836 14th Avenue, Vero Beach, FL 32960.

ARTICLE VIII – Dissolution

Upon dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed to a Florida Not for Profit Corporation serving the aging population in Indian River County, Florida, provided that at the time of such distribution such organization is tax exempt for purposes of section 501(c)(3) of the Code or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction in the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE IX – Miscellaneous

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes of the corporation. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Code.

No Officer or director of the corporation shall be personally liable to the corporation for monetary damage for or arising out of a breach of fiduciary duty as an officer or director notwithstanding any provisions of law imposing such liability, provided however, that the foregoing shall not eliminate or limit the liability of an officer or director to the extent that such liability is imposed by applicable law (i) for a breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its members, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law, or (iii) for any transaction from which the officer or director derived an improper personal benefit.

The corporation may, to the extent legally permissible, indemnify each person who may serve or who has served at any time as an officer or director of the corporation against all expenses and liabilities, including without limitation, counsel fees, judgments, fines, excise taxes, penalties and settlement payments, reasonably incurred by or imposed upon such person in connection with any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding in which he or she may become involved by reason of his or her service in such capacity; provided that no indemnification shall be provided for any such person with respect to any matter as to which he or she shall have been finally adjudicated in any proceeding not have acted in good faith in the reasonable belief that such action was in the best interests of the corporation; and further provided that any compromise or settlement payment shall be approved by the corporation.

The indemnification provided hereunder shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of an officer or director entitled to indemnification hereunder. The right of indemnification under this provision shall be in addition to and not exclusive of all other rights to which any person may be entitled.

This provision constitutes a contract between the corporation and the indemnified officers and directors. No amendment or repeal of this provision that adversely affects the right of an indemnified officer or director shall apply to such officer or director with respect to those acts or omissions that occurred at any time prior to such amendment or repeal.
