DISSOLUTION OF ASSETS

As a Non-Profit filed Corporation, The Shepherd's Gallery intends to file for IRS federal tax exemption under the premise of being a Charitable Organization.

Funds within the Non-Profit are to serve to provide:

1. Advancement of faith
2. Relief of the poor.

Statement

There will be no intention to dissolve the Assets of the organization unless otherwise applicable in the aforementioned clause.

In the effect of federally deemed insolvency within the 501 © 3 status, the assets of the organization, upon dissolution, are to be turned over to the legal Trustees of the Corporate Fund and who by Right of inheritance by familial circles in the faith are considered by Directors and Officers, the legal persons or entities responsible to furthering the business idea. Said persons or entities or natural associates are considered duly authorized Trustees named and appointed by the Non-Profit Owners/s and the Initial Directors/Officers. The first appointed natural Trustee is the original owner and producer of the product (assets), Copyright owner, and the original initiator of the business idea, copyright owner. If in the case of natural and physical causes and in agreement with copyright laws, the original producer and the owner of product and idea shall agree and acknowledge that in order to effect turn key management for sustainable and plausible causes that do not detract from the intent of this clause, said Trustees appointed by the managers shall agree to the purpose for which the corporation exist and shall recognize that it shall only be managed under the auspices of the original intent and purpose of the 501 © 3 Non-Profit Organization.
