Article III: The specific purpose for which this corporation is organized is exclusively religious within the meaning of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The Corporation is not organized for the private gain of any person. It seeks to advance the gospel of Jesus Christ for the expansion of the Kingdom of God through the use of evangelistic rallies in the Christian Church. It seeks to develop networks of student ministers and student ministries for the spiritual health of teenagers and those that disciple them in biblical principles. The Corporation seeks to work with other organizations, projects, and initiatives that are organized and operated for similar purposes.

The recital of these purposes as contained in this paragraph is intended to be exclusive of any and all other purposes, this corporation being formed for such Christian religious purposes only.

Article IX: The property of this corporation is irrevocably dedicated to religious purposes and no part of the net income or assets of this corporation shall inure to the benefit of any director, officer or member thereof or to the benefit of any private person. Upon the dissolution or winding up of the corporation, its assets remaining after payment, or provision for payment, of all debts and liabilities of this church shall be distributed to a nonprofit fund, foundation or corporation which is organized and operated exclusively for religious purposes and which has established its tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended.

The date of each amendment(s) adoption: _____, if other than the date this document was signed.

Effective date if applicable: _____
