ADDENDUM #1

Limitation of corporate powers

(a) In all events and circumstances, and notwithstanding any merger, consolidation, reorganization, termination, dissolution, or winding up of the corporation, voluntary or involuntary or by operation of law, or amendment of the Articles of Incorporation:

(1) The corporation shall not have or exercise any power or authority expressly, by interpretation, or by operation of law, nor shall it directly or indirectly engage in any activity, which would prevent it from qualifying (and continuing to qualify) as a corporation exempt from taxation under Section 501 (c) (3) or as a corporation contributions to which are deductible for federal income tax purposes under Section 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or corresponding provisions of future United States internal revenue laws.

(2) No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributed to, its members, directors, officers or other private persons, except that the corporation may pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth above to organizations exempt from taxation under 501 (c) (3).

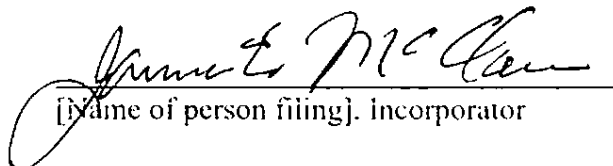

(3) No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation; nor shall the corporation in any manner or to any extent participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

(b) Upon dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all liabilities of the corporation, distribute all assets of the corporation jointly to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious, or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an organization or organizations described in Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provisions of future United States internal revenue laws.

Addendum #2

Initial Directors shall be appointed by the pastor. In subsequent years the Directors shall be elected by the church board.
