ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

OF

FAITH LIFE WORSHIP CENTER NAPLES, INC.
a Not-for-Profit Florida Corporation

(Pursuant to Chapter 617, Florida Statutes.)

FILED
18 OCT 17 AM 11:49
SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE, FL 32399

The undersigned has, for the purpose of forming a non-profit corporation under the laws of Florida, adopted the following Articles of Incorporation.

1. Name. The name of this Corporation is FAITH LIFE WORSHIP CENTER NAPLES, INC.
2. Duration. The period of duration of this Corporation is perpetual.
3. Principal Office of Business. The principal place of business and mailing address of the Corporation is c/o Heath Jarvis, 7663 Martino Circle, Naples, FL 34112.
4. Tax-Exempt Status. The tax exempt purposes of this Corporation shall be to receive and maintain a fund or funds of real or personal property or both and, subject to the restrictions and limitations which are hereinafter set forth, to use and apply the whole or any part of the income from the principal of the fund or funds exclusively for charitable, religious, scientific, literary or educational purposes, either directly or by contributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under §501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations as they now exist or any may hereafter be amended. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, this Corporation shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by organizations described in §501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.
5. Specific and General Purposes. The specific and general purposes of this non-profit Corporation are:
 - a. To act and operate exclusively as a nonprofit corporation pursuant to the laws of Florida, by providing a place of corporate worship and assembly for its members for fellowship with one another both in large public congregations and in small fellowship groups, to worship the One true God in Spirit and in truth, and to build up the whole body of Christ.
 - b. To disseminate the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the Word of God, as spelled out in the Holy Bible, to all people who wish to hear the Good News of Jesus Christ.
 - c. To establish and maintain a location(s) to worship, study, recreate, and socially interact by ministering to the spirit, body and soul of individuals and families.
 - d. To support and encourage communication and extension of the Christian life and witness to all people with sound and comprehensive preaching and teaching of Biblical principles to all people, through not only conventional modes such as pulpit ministry during worship services. In addition and without any limitations, to communicate through all available modern technology including, such as by sponsorship, participation in, conducting and engaging in radio and/or television broadcasting, internet podcasts and webcasts, online social media, social media, uses of print, reproduction and publication of books, periodicals, recordings, and other materials.

- e. To act with charitable concern for and to help not only members of this Corporation, but also all people in need of any help which this Corporation can give, according to the principles of God's Word, regardless of race, social position, or religious affiliation; to develop and carry out programs of social action for poor, widowed, orphaned, afflicted, imprisoned, underprivileged, or aged persons, both for the Corporation's members as well as others.
- f. To pray to God on behalf of the needs of all people, for local and national leaders, for governments, and for all who are in authority, as instructed in 1 Timothy 2:1-3.
- g. To establish and operate classes and schools; to hold and conduct seminars, conferences, study groups, workshops, and meetings by resident or traveling ministers and ministries; to receive offerings for such purposes; and to grant aid and pay compensations to persons, firms, and corporations for services actually rendered for such purposes.
- h. To acquire by deed, gift, or purchase, any real estate or personal property, which shall be held in trust for the Corporation's benefit and/or for its stated purpose(s).
- i. To mortgage, sell, or otherwise encumber any such property when such action is deemed to be in the Corporation's best interests, as defined in its stated purposes as a Christian organization.
- j. To have authority to solicit and receive contributions, purchase, own and sell real and personal property, to make contracts, to invest corporate funds, to spend corporate funds for corporate purposes, and to engage in any activity in furtherance of, incidental to, or connected with any of the other purposes.
- k. To engage in any and all activities and pursuits, and to raise funds to support or assist other organizations, as may be reasonably related to the foregoing purposes.
- l. Any and all lawful purposes not for pecuniary profit.

6. Limitations.

- a. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, members of its Board of Directors, its officers or trustees, (if any) or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered to the Corporation and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of its purposes.
- b. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office except as authorized under federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).
- c. The Corporation shall not lend any of its assets to any officer or director of the Corporation (unless such loan program is regularly conducted as part of the activities of the organization and the qualification of the individual participants in the same is determined by a panel comprised solely of non-Board members), or guarantee to any person the payment of a loan by an officer or director of this Corporation.

d. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law); or, (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

7. Membership. To qualify as a member of this Corporation or its constituent churches and fellowships, an individual must have made a profession of faith in Jesus Christ as his or her personal Savior and Lord. Members of this corporation must express agreement with the Corporation's tenets of faith and other provisions as set forth in the Bylaws. Membership shall be based on scriptural consideration of the individual's profession of faith and on his or her practices of said faith in daily life and be approved by the Board of Directors.

8. Board of Directors. The affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors. The number of directors of the Corporation shall be fixed and may be altered from time to time as may be provided in the Bylaws. The number of Directors may be increased or decreased from time to time in accordance with the Bylaws, but shall never be less than three (3) directors. The manner of election of members of the Board of Directors shall be set forth in the Bylaws.

The names and addresses of the members of the initial Board of Directors, who shall serve until their successors are qualified according to the Bylaws, are:
