ARTICLE III - PURPOSE

The purposes for which the corporation is organized are

- a. The corporation is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes under Section 501(c)3 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under said Section 501(c)3 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. Specifically, the corporation will be established to assure that the men and women who served honorably in the United States military and those eligible for interment in a national cemetery are appropriately recognized by dignified funeral services and will further promote community awareness through educational and ceremonial programs.
- b. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, this organization shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from Federal Income Tax under Section 501(c)3 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law or by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)2 of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

- c. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the organization shall not participate in, or intervene in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.
