ARTICLE III PURPOSE (Continued)

④ Promote and encourage cooperation with other ministries that operate within our community and across the United States, Israel and around the world;

⑤ Spread the Word of God by ministering through seminars, radio, television, original music, books, video, the internet, mission trips and tours of the Holy Land and other holy sites, as well as through other forms of mass media.

⑥ Organize and participate in benevolence projects and programs to address the needy and less fortunate in our community and in Israel and, from time to time, provide disaster relief in the form of donations and other forms of aid to disaster stricken areas here in the U.S., in Israel, and in other nations around the world.

This ministry is not organized, nor shall it operate, for pecuniary gain or profit, and it does not contemplate the distribution of gains, profits or dividends to its members and is organized and will operate solely for non-profit purposes. The property, assets, profits and/or net income of this ministry is irrevocably dedicated to charitable, educational and religious purposes and no part of the profits or net income of this ministry shall ever inure to the benefit of any particular shareholder, officer, or other individual. Upon the dissolution or winding up of this ministry, its assets remaining after payment, or provision of payment, of all debts and liabilities of this ministry shall be distributed to a non-profit fund, foundation or corporation that is organized and operated for charitable, educational, ecclesiastical, religious or sacerdotal purposes and that has established its tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. In addition, no substantial part of this ministry's activities shall be for the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and this Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including publishing or distributing statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.
