The Directors will be appointed as provided in the Bylaws of the Corporation.

ARTICLE V MEMBERS AND ADVISORY BOARD

At the discretion of the Board of Directors, the Corporation may or may not have members or an advisory board. If the Board from time to time determines to establish memberships, or an advisory board, the qualifications for members of the Corporation, or for members of an advisory board, and the manner of their admission, and provisions governing their respective status, rights, responsibilities or benefits shall be as provided in the Bylaws or as determined by the Board. The Corporation shall have authority to issue certificates of membership as provided in the Bylaws or as determined by the Board. In no event shall members, if any, be entitled to vote. Membership, if any, in the Corporation shall be non-transferable. Members shall have no ownership rights or beneficial interests of any kind in the Corporation or its assets. Initially, the Corporation has no members and no advisory board separate and apart from the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VI LIMITATIONS

(1) The Corporation is organized not for profit, and no part of its income shall ever be distributed to any member, member of the Board of Directors, officer or any private individual, provided, however, that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the Corporation affecting one or more of its purposes.

(2) The Corporation shall not, as a substantial part of the activities of the Corporation, attempt to influence legislation by propaganda, lobbying or otherwise; nor shall the Corporation participate in or intervene in (including by publication or distribution of statements or otherwise), any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to, any candidate for public office.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not conduct or carry on activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on (i) by an organization exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, and the related Treasury Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended, (ii) by an organization to which contributions are deductible under Section 170 of the Code, and the related Treasury Regulations as they now exist or as may be amended, or (iii) by a not for profit corporation under the laws of the State of Florida as they now exist may be hereafter amended.

(4) The Corporation has a policy of non-discrimination, and accordingly, in connection with any education program it offers or sponsors, it will admit students or participants of any race, color and national and ethnic origin, to all the rights, privileges, programs and activities to be offered or made available generally to students or participants. The Corporation will not discriminate on the basis of race, color or national or ethnic origin in the administration of its educational policies, admissions policies, scholarship or loan programs, if any, and any other educational or related programs.
