Special emphasis will be directed at improving the lives of marginalized populations including former service men and women along with a focus and attention given to disadvantaged communities. A core component of the ministry will be to foster a deep sense of caring, concern and empathy towards achieving economic self sufficiency. This Church will manifest blessings in the congregation through providing the skills to operate, control and take charge of one's destiny through entrepreneurship. To summarize: the purposes of Universal Fellowship for Peace and Justice is to serve as a church and it will be providing worship services according to traditions of Spiritual Development and Vibratory Ascendancy, along with other religious, educational, cultural and social services to the local community and all communities, consistent with the establishment and maintenance of the beliefs, philosophy and spiritual foundations of "love towards ALL."

All the activities of this organization shall be an integral part of the worship and meditations carried out by the congregation, under the leadership of Dr. Russel Johnson, PHD.

In the event of its dissolution, the directors, after clearing all debts, will distribute all remaining assets to other organizations recognized by the IRS under sec 501(c)(3) that have goals similar to those of Universal Fellowship for Peace.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Russel Johnson", with a large, sweeping flourish at the end.
