ARTICLE III
PURPOSES

Section 1. The specific and primary purpose for which the Corporation is formed is for the purpose of charitable, educational, and scientific purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code"), with a focus on building broad-based prosperity for all through education and partnership by: (i) serving as an educational platform for the community; (ii) promoting and facilitating trade between local businesses and the rest of the world; (iii) educating communities about the American Muslim culture; (iv) increasing relationships and partnerships; (v) creating and implementing programs that will foster economic development; (vi) engaging with leaders to further interests of businesses, entrepreneurs, and professionals; (vii) connecting individuals for the betterment of our community; and (viii) assisting other local charitable organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or the corresponding provisions of any future federal tax laws.

Such support may be provided by soliciting, receiving and administering gifts and bequests of funds and property, both restricted and unrestricted, for charitable purposes, all for the benefit of other charitable organizations, and to take and hold, absolutely or in trust, for any of such purposes funds and property of every kind, real, personal, tangible and intangible, subject only to any limitations and conditions imposed by law or by the instrument under which received; to sell, lease, convey or otherwise dispose of any such property and to invest and reinvest the proceeds of and earnings from such property in accordance with investment policies established from time to time by the Corporation's Board of Directors; and to exercise any, all and every power, including trust powers, which a corporation not for profit created under the laws of the State of Florida can be authorized to exercise.

Section 2. The general purposes for which the Corporation is organized are exclusively for charitable, educational and scientific purposes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code or the corresponding section of any future federal tax laws.

Section 3. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from federal income tax under the Code, or the corresponding provisions of any future federal tax laws.

Section 4. In the event the Corporation is in any year determined to be a "private foundation" as defined in Section 509(a) of the Code it shall:

- (a) Distribute its income for each tax year at such time and in such manner so that it will not become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942 of the Code, or the corresponding provisions of any future federal tax laws.
- (b) Not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Code, or the corresponding provisions of any future federal tax laws.
- (c) Not retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Code, or the corresponding provisions of any future federal tax laws.
- (d) Not make any taxable investments as defined in Section 4944 of the Code, or the corresponding provisions of any future federal tax laws.
- (e) Not make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Code, or the corresponding provisions of any future federal tax laws.

ARTICLE IV POWERS

The Corporation shall be authorized to exercise the powers permitted corporations not for profit under Chapter 617, Florida Statutes; provided, however, that the Corporation, in exercising any one or more of such powers, shall do so in furtherance of the exempt purposes for which it has been organized within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.
