Articles of Incorporation of canCode, Inc.

In Compliance with Chapter 617, F.S. (Not for Profit)

The undersigned, for the purpose of forming a nonprofit corporation under the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act, Florida Statutes Chapter 617, makes and adopts the following Articles of Incorporation as of the 28th day of March, 2019 ("Effective Date"):

ARTICLE 1. Name.

The name of the corporation shall be as follows:

canCode, Inc.

ARTICLE 2. Address.

The address of the principal office and the mailing address of the corporation is:

2634 N.W. 49th Street
Boca Raton, Florida 33434

ARTICLE 3. Purposes.

The corporation is organized, and shall be operated exclusively for charitable and educational purposes which shall include, without limitation, the following:

1. Teaching computer programming workshops at youth centers for underprivileged children.
2. To spark an interest for computer programing in young minds with a focus towards underprivileged children of a lower socio economic background.
3. canCode will focus on inspiring the underserved minority and economically disadvantaged communities. In the coming decades, computer programming will be a necessary skill for all jobs and the need for programmers is rising rapidly. Many jobs are available to those with only a high school degree who have computer programming experience. canCode will work to inspire children to develop a passion and appreciation for what they can do with computer programming. This will allow the underprivileged children to rise up and improve their lives so that their future will be more successful.
4. Teenage teachers are passionate in computer programming and want to share their passion in underprivileged communities and will work with the corporation to share their knowledge as mentors with the children.

5. Computer programming is not yet taught at most public elementary schools, and canCode will work to fill the gap in computer programming education by teaching rudimentary concepts.
6. At the end of every canCode workshop series, each student will have learned basic computer programming concepts and have their own customized game or project.
7. The students are encouraged to create and learn more after the workshops have ended and will be able to use the canCode website for challenges and often will participate in another canCode workshop at their youth center and teach other underprivileged children how to code.

Said corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, educational, and scientific purposes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE 4. General Powers.

In addition to, but not in limitation of, the general powers conferred by common law and the statutes of the State of Florida in effect from time to time, the corporation shall have the following powers, unless indicated otherwise by the bylaws: (i) to own, acquire, construct, operate and maintain property, buildings, structures and other facilities incident thereto; (ii) to buy or otherwise acquire, sell or otherwise dispose of, mortgage, pledge, hypothecate or otherwise encumber, exchange, lease, hold, use, operate, invest and otherwise deal in and with real, personal and mixed property of all kinds, including, without limitation, stocks, bonds, and other securities and rights or interests therein for any purposes of the corporation; (iii) to accept, take, hold, acquire and receive by gift, devise, loan, bequest, purchase, or to receive by contribution any real, personal or mixed property in any form without limitation as to kind, amount or value; (iv) to borrow money for any purpose except as may be limited by the bylaws; (v) to enter into, make, perform or enforce contracts of every kind and description; and (vi) to do all other acts necessary, appropriate or advisory in carrying out any purpose of the corporation. The corporation shall be authorized to accept contributions or gifts in any form, either without restriction or subject to such terms, restrictions and trusts as may be provided in such gifts, and may administer any such trust provided such terms, conditions or trusts are within the objects and purposes of this corporation and are not in violation of any other provisions of these Articles of Incorporation. The foregoing enumeration of powers shall not limit or restrict in any manner the exercise of other and further rights and powers that may now or hereafter be allowed or permitted by law.

ARTICLE 5. Manner of Election.

Officers. The officers of the corporation may consist of a president, executive director, one or more vice presidents, a secretary, a treasurer, and any other officers and assistant officers as may be provided for in the Bylaws. Each officer shall be nominated and elected by a vote of the President (and may be removed by a vote of the President) at such a time and in such a manner as may be prescribed by the Bylaws or by law.
