ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF
SPREADING KNOWLEDGE FOUNDATION

ARTICLE I - NAME

The name of this corporation is SPREADING KNOWLEDGE FOUNDATION CORP.

ARTICLE II - PURPOSE

The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable educational, and scientific purposes as specified in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, including for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. The specific purposes of the Corporation are to:

1. Conduct studies that represent a real and tangible impact in today's unresolved social issues.
2. Provide assistance to other non-profit organizations, private assistance institutions, research and educational institutions, and people in vulnerable conditions by generating social programs to improve social conditions and lifestyles in multiple segments of the population.
3. Improve social and living conditions in general by enhancing local development with programs based on scientific research.
4. Attend to issues involving social eating habits, promote a healthy lifestyle and increase wellness.
5. Attend social problems related to the evolution of urban and rural wellbeing.
6. Support social science research as a way of generating real impact in the conditions of vulnerable sectors of the population.
7. Encourage scientific research with the purpose of improving human living conditions and create public policies accordingly.
8. Support startup culture as a way of improving local community needs.
9. Make all of the aforementioned scientific investigations obtainable to every sector of the population, closing the gap between scientists and social application of their research.
10. Provide scholarships directed to perform studies of this sort, with legitimate validity and recognition.

Said corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article [X] hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

If reference to federal law in articles of incorporation imposes a limitation that is invalid in your state, you may wish to substitute the following for the last sentence of the preceding paragraph: "Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, this corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purposes of this corporation."

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all the legal liabilities of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

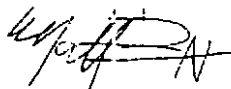

ARTICLE III - REGISTERED ADDRESS
