CHAPTER I

DENOMINATION, PURPOSES, GENERAL PRINCIPLES AND DURATION.

CLAUSE 1: Denomination: The Civil Foundation governed by this document is a non-profit organization, which is called VENEZUELA-USA foundation. The Foundation is a means to spread moral values; promote democracy, recover faith in the country and contribute to the socioeconomic development of the Nation.

CLAUSE 2: Character and Purposes of the Foundation. The Foundation has a philanthropic character. Its purpose: to raise awareness and / or teach society in general, the importance of citizen values as a response to an integral formation in individuals. Emphasizing the most vulnerable population, such as children, as an essential key to avoid or reduce the appearance of social risk behaviors in later stages such as adolescence and adulthood; as well as the population of scarce resources. To this end, the Foundation will promote the holding of symposia, conferences, exhibitions; will be able to dictate courses and general didactic material. It may also sponsor publications related to the purpose of the Foundation. Perform radio, television, cultural micros, WEB pages, blogs and any other written or network media that contributes to the dissemination. Prepare and execute projects related to the object of the Foundation.

CLAUSE 3: Creation of alliances, and income or adhesion to organizations. In order to fulfill its non-profit purposes, the Foundation may contract the personnel, professional or technical that it requires, and enter networks, networks of networks, federations, confederations and other similar institutions; celebrate technical associations with specialized companies; enter into agreements of alliance or inter-institutional cooperation with national, binational or multinational organizations, public or private, and perform any other act or activity necessary for the fulfillment of its objectives.

CLUSTER 4: Address: The Foundation will be headquartered in the city of Tampa, and may establish offices, sections, departments or chapters elsewhere, inside and outside of the United States of America.

CLAUSE 5: Volunteering: In a very special way, the Foundation will seek the support and collaboration of volunteers; and of companies and organizations with conscience and social responsibility.

CLAUSE 6: It does not have political ends: The Foundation does not have, nor will it have political ends; It is not, nor will it be linked to any party or political organization, reasons why it will refrain from participating in any partisan event.

CLAUSE 7: Legal Personality: The Foundation has its own Legal Personality, independent of its members, directors or administrators. Consequently, the Foundation can not be responsible or be held responsible for personal obligations of its partners or officials, or vice versa.

CLAUSE 8: Duration: The Foundation will last fifty years (50) years, counted from the date of its registration in the corresponding Public Registry. The Assembly, in accordance with the provisions of this document, may in advance dissolve or extend it. The Foundation will not be extinguished by the death, interdiction, bankruptcy, resignation or expulsion of one or more of its members.

CHAPTER II OF ITS MEMBERS.

CLAUSE 9: Types of Members: The Foundation will have three types of members; 1. The Founding Members; that is, those who appear in this document constitutive of the Foundation, except in cases of absolute absence, which must be replaced. 2. Designated Members: Are those persons whom the Assembly of Members accepts or designates as members, who shall have the same rights and obligations as the founding members. 3. Honorary Members: are the persons referred to in Clause 11 of this document. The acquisition of membership status leads to full acceptance of this document, without reservation.

CLAUSE 10: Members do not pursue lucrative purposes: In virtue of the non-profit nature of the Foundation, Members agree that they do not have, nor shall they have any right to participate in, the benefits or profits obtained by the Foundation, or their assets. Therefore, if by resignation, death, expulsion or for any other reason they lose their status as members, neither they nor their heirs or successors, will have anything to claim from the Foundation for participation in the assets or utilities, nor for any another concept of participations in the goods or utilities or by any other concept related to the quality that they had.

CLAUSE 11: Honorary Members: The Board of Directors may grant the status of Honorary Members of the Foundation to those individuals or legal entities that are entitled to such distinction for the contributions or services that have been granted or lent to the Foundation. Unless expressly provided by the Board of Directors, the status of Honorary Member will expire three (3) years after being conferred, although it may be conferred again and consecutively.

CLAUSE 12: Inability of the quality of Member: Representation: The quality of the member is non-transferable and consequently the Foundation will not recognize any translating act of said ownership. Members may be represented by another Member by means of power of attorney letters granted expressly and in writing, signed by the principal. Any Member of the Board of Directors may be mandator of one or more Members, except that the decision to consider the personal responsibility of the Member to whom the mandate has been conferred; without prejudice to the validity of the representation for other decisions contained in the agenda of that or another Assembly of Members.

CLAUSE 13: Loss of the Quality of a Member: The quality of the Member of the Foundation is lost for: A. Due to the resignation of its owner. B. Due to the incapacity, death or disqualification of the owner. C. For having been expelled from the Foundation by the Assembly of Members. Only the expulsion of a Member shall proceed when a specially convened Assembly of Members, with the qualified majority provided in Clause 25 of this document, declares that the conduct of the Member is incompatible with the associative purposes.

CLAUSE 14: The causes of exclusion of the Foundation Members are the following: A. Absence of 3 assemblies, whatever their class; B. lack of diligence in the fulfillment of the functions assigned to him by virtue of the execution of a contract; C. failure to observe ethical and moral standards that jeopardize the good name of the Foundation; D. the voluntary decision to exclude one of the members.

CLAUSE 15: Rights and obligations of Members: Except as expressly and exhaustively indicated in this document, Members have equal rights and obligations. Especially have the rights of assistance; voice and vote in the Assemblies of Members, in which each one will have one (01) vote. The Quality of Honorary Member is merely honorific and, therefore, does not grant any right to such Members.

CHAPTER III
