PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

Section 3.01. GENERAL PURPOSES. This corporation is a religious nonprofit corporation and is not organized for the private gain of any person. It is organized under the Chapter 617, F. S., (Not for Profit) for religious purposes.

This corporation is organized exclusively for religious purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law. Notwithstanding any other provision of these bylaws, this corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purposes of this corporation, and the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law.

Section 3.02. SPECIFIC PURPOSES. Within the context of the general purposes stated above, the specific purposes of this corporation are:

(a) To provide a suitable place for divine worship in accordance with the principles and teaching of Jesus Christ- to extend the Kingdom of God among men to disseminate and advocate the traditional Christian spirit as enunciated by our Blessed Lord, and to practice, cherish and cultivate love, charity and goodwill among its membership and all men.

(b) To carry on missionary work for the spiritual and moral uplifting of humanity; to teach, preach, impart and interpret Christian principles and divine healing as revealed in the Holy Scriptures.

(c) To acquire and maintain radio and television airtime in which to proclaim the gospel of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

(d) To establish missions; Sunday Schools; day and night schools; to maintain child care centers; library; lunch counters; dress shops; sewing rooms, youth centers, orphanages and to ordain Christian ministers of the Pentecostal faith and beliefs, all of the foregoing of which is to be done in furtherance of the religion of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

(e) To establish branches in the State of Florida, and in all other states and jurisdictions in and of the United States of America, and in all foreign countries.

(f) To own, acquire, lease, sell, rent, manage and mortgage real and personal property, to hold, transfer or encumber the same; to hold in trust for the use and benefit any of the properties of this corporation, real and personal, to receive gifts, bequests and devises, and to invest its funds in any legal or lawful security whatsoever, and to do all the things proper, necessary and incidental hereto.

(g) To do and perform every lawful act and thing necessary to carry out the above enumerated purposes in the State of Florida, and in every other state and jurisdiction which like corporations organized under the Laws of each state and jurisdiction may lawfully do or cause to be done therein.

(h) To exercise and enjoy any and all of the powers given to a Non-Profit Religious Corporation by the Not for Profit Religious Corporation Code of the State of Florida.

Section 3.03. LIMITATIONS.

(a) No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall consist of lobbying or propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and this corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including publishing or distributing statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

(b) All corporate property is irrevocably dedicated to the purposes set forth in section 3.01 above. No part of the net earnings of this corporation shall inure to the benefit of any of its directors, trustees, officers, private shareholders or members, or to individuals.

(c) On the winding up and dissolution of this corporation, after paying or adequately providing for the debts, obligations, and liabilities of the corporation, the remaining assets of this corporation shall be distributed to a Christian organization (or organizations) organized and operated exclusively for religious purposes selected by the Board, which has established its tax-exempt status under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law).

ARTICLE IV MANNER OF ELECTION

Section 4.01. MANNER OF ELECTION OR APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTORS:

(a) The President shall appoint not less than three (3) nor more than five (5) executive Directors.

(b) The Pastor and or President shall be a member of the Board of Directors.

(c) In the event of a vacancy, the remainder of the Directors shall be elected at each annual meeting of the Board. If any such directors are not elected at any annual meeting, they may be elected at any special Board meeting held for that purpose. The election of each Director is not final unless approved by the President. Each such Director, including a Director elected to fill a vacancy or elected at a special meeting, shall hold office until expiration of the term for which elected and until a successor has been elected and qualified, unless the Board determines the seat is to remain vacant.
