(A) To receive and maintain real or personal property, or both and subject to the restrictions and limitations hereinafter set forth, to use and apply the whole or any part of the income and the principal thereof exclusively for charitable purposes either directly or by contributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(C)(3) of the IRC code and its regulations as they now exist or they may hereafter be amended. More specifically, the purposes shall include but not limited to:

(1) To lessen the burden of Florida's government through fundraising events and activities to solicit money donations for the poor, distressed and underprivileged Florida Return Citizens (i.e. ex-felons) who cannot afford to pay court imposed fees, fines and restitution (depending on the amount of restitution owed) attached to their past criminal convictions which they have already completed their prison sentence for – fees, fines and restitutions which restricts them from voting in Florida's elections.

(B) No part of the net earnings of the Incorporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the Incorporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article Three hereof.

(C) Upon the dissolution of the Incorporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or adequately providing for all the debts, obligations, and liabilities of the Incorporation, distribute the remaining assets of the Incorporation exclusively for the nonprofit religious purposes to such organization or organizations which are tax exempt under section 501(C)(3) of the Code, as amended, as the Board of Directors in its sole discretion shall determine. The extent of personal liability, if any, for directors, officers, or members for Incorporate obligations and the methods of enforcement and collection, are as follows: NONE. Further, the Directors and Officers shall be exempt from liability and/or indemnified from costs and judgments to the full extent permitted by Florida law. In the event the (Florida) law is subsequently amended to authorize the further elimination or limitation of the liability of Directors or Officers of nonprofit Incorporations, then the liability of Directors and Officers of the Incorporation in addition to the limitation on personal liability provided under this Article, shall be limited to the fullest extent permitted by such later amended Florida law.
