To whom it may concern

We are a group of Alcoholics Anonymous - When 2 of the officers learned that the business information would be available to view publicly, including their first + last name, and possibly address, they both opted out of holding a position. They feel very strongly that their anonymity is being compromised.

I am the Treasurer of our group and simply want to open a small checking account in the groups name. I have no financial benefit, and we were told the best way is to set up a corporation, and the IRS would recognize the EIN as the account and it wouldn't be listed as an account under my name and Social Security.

Can I continue as the only officer?
