ARTICLE III PURPOSE

The principal objects and purposes for which the corporation is formed are as follows:

a. To conduct and maintain a House of Worship in accordance with the traditions of the Hebrew faith and to conduct all communal, charitable, humanitarian, philanthropic and other such affairs necessary for a viable community directed to organizations and individuals on a global and local level, including but not limited to special needs children and their families.

b. To purchase and sell property, both real and personal, to mortgage and lease both real and personal property as may be necessary for the conduct and welfare of the corporation.

c. The organization may also assist with and provide other religious services for the community, such as a religious school and a summer retreat and camp. Said religious school aside from its own conduct of religious services, will teach the principals of the Jewish faith and its traditions. It may also may publish religious works and maintain classes for the furtherance of the tenets of Jewish orthodoxy. It may administer a school program consisting of grades ranging from nursery through the twelfth grade, post high school and post graduate Rabbinical studies. The summer camp may conduct some and at times all of these activities during the summer in a camp setting

d. It may promote and facilitate the translation, printing, distribution and study of religious texts as well as providing, if necessary, and available, a ritualarium promoting ritual and spiritual religious purity.

e. Said organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501 ( c ) ( 3 ) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

f. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in article FIFTH a, b, c and d.

g. No substantial part of the activities of the organization shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the organization shall not participate in, or intervene in (include the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

h. Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a organization exempt from Federal income tax under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future Federal tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under
