Dear Ms. McClees-Sams:

As requested on Letter Number 419A00011078 dated June 4, 2019, attached is the original Articles of Incorporation, including the correction regarding the corporate business street address. Today I spoke with Keyna, and she advised I could write it in as part of the document. I have enclosed a notarized statement providing the address and listing me as the Incorporator (amendment attached to the back of the document).

If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact me at (407) 343-2886.

Sincerely,

Fr. Jason McCrimmon

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF
SAINT JOHN FISHER CATHOLIC CONGREGATION, INC.

The undersigned hereby submits these articles for the purpose of forming a corporation not for profit under Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, and certifies as follows:

ARTICLE I.

Name, Address, Registered Agent

The name of the corporation shall be SAINT JOHN FISHER CATHOLIC CONGREGATION, INC., which corporation shall herein be referred to as the "corporation," and whose mailing address and principal place of business shall be 1515 Edgewater Drive, Orlando, FL 32804.

The mailing address and street address of the initial registered office of this corporation is 1515 Edgewater Drive, Orlando, FL 32804. The name of the initial registered agent of this corporation at the address is Rev. Fr. Jason McCrimmon.

ARTICLE II.

Definitions

1. "Diocese" or "Ordinate," as defined in the Code of Canon Law, means a portion of the people of God which is entrusted to the Bishop of the Diocese. "Diocese" or "Ordinate" is used herein as the Personal Ordinate of the Chair of Saint Peter.
2. "Ordinary," as defined in the Code of Canon Law, means the person duly appointed according to the norm of canon law, and in whom the governance of the Diocese is Vested. "Ordinary" is used herein as the Ordinary of the Personal Ordinate of the Chair of Saint Peter.
3. "Parish," as defined in the Code of Canon Law, means a certain community of Christ's faithful stably established within a particular Church whose pastoral care under the authority of the Diocesan Bishop, is entrusted to a parish priest as its proper Pastor. "Parish" is used herein as Saint John Fisher Parish.

ARTICLE III.

Purpose

The purpose for which the Corporation is organized is for the following purposes:

1. The public worship of Almighty God according to the practices of the Roman Catholic Church and the norms of the Diocese known as the Personal Ordinariate of the Chair of Saint Peter (the "Ordinariate").
2. The operation of a Parish in conformance with the Code of Canon Law of the Roman Catholic Church, the policies and rules of the Ordinariate and within the framework and limitations of these Purposes, which Parish will be known as Saint John Fisher Parish.
3. The operation of Saint John Fisher Parish in a manner that is first and foremost an expression of the Gospel imperative for the salvation of souls, a community which gathers to hear the Word of God, to receive nourishment in the Sacraments, to educate the children and new members in the faith, and to respond to the needs of St. John Fisher Parish.
4. The operation of Saint John Fisher Parish in a manner that is directed, ordered to the salvation of souls; not to administration; ordered to communion with God and the broader Roman Catholic Church.
5. The implementation of specific services and programs within Saint John Fisher Parish, that foster a community of faith and serve as a subsidiary analogue to the Ordinariate.
6. To refuse to implement certain services and programs contrary to the teachings of the Roman Catholic Church and its Code of Canon Law.
7. For any other charitable purpose consistent with the Roman Catholic Church and these Articles.

ARTICLE IV.

Powers

The powers of the Corporation shall be, in addition to the general powers afforded a corporation not for profit under the statutory laws of the State of Florida, all the powers reasonably necessary to implement the Purpose of this Corporation, including, but not limited, to the following:

1. The Corporation binds itself to follow the requirements of the Code of Canon Law and other applicable particular law of the Roman Catholic Church. The Corporation may engage in all such activities and do all such things as may be consistent with the purposes set forth herein and reasonably necessary or appropriate to the attainment of its purposes or the management of its affairs, subject to the restrictions set forth in these Articles:

2. The Corporation shall be authorized to exercise and enjoy all the powers, rights and privileges granted to or conferred upon non-profit corporations of a similar character by the provisions of Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, entitled "Florida Corporations Not for Profit," now or hereafter in force and to do any and all things necessary to carry out its purposes.

3. The Corporation shall be operated exclusively as a nonprofit corporation for charitable, educational, or scientific purposes within the meaning of Section 513(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code").

4. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, and the Corporation shall make no distribution of net earnings to, its Directors, officers or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III above. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by:

(a) A corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or

(b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

5. No compensation shall be paid to Directors for their services as Directors. Compensation, however, may be paid to a Director in his or her capacity as an officer or employee or for other services rendered to the Corporation outside of his or her duties as a Director. In this case, compensation must be approved and advanced by the Board of Directors and the Director receiving such compensation shall not be permitted to vote for same.

compensation. The Directors shall have the right to set and pay all salaries or compensation to be paid to officers, employees, agents or attorneys for services rendered to the Corporation.

ARTICLE V. Membership

The Corporation shall have no members.

ARTICLE VI. Corporate Existence

This Corporation shall exist perpetually.

ARTICLE VII. Directors

1. The affairs and business of this Corporation shall be managed or conducted by a Board of Directors, which may exercise all powers of the Corporation and do all such lawful acts as are permitted by statute, these Articles, and the Bylaws, so as to achieve the purposes set forth in Article II hereof. The Board of Directors shall have the control and general management of the affairs and business of the Corporation except that any gift, sale, transfer, mortgage or lease of real property of the Corporation shall require the advance written approval of the Ordinary.

2. The Corporation shall have no more than five (5) and no less than three (3) Directors. The Directors shall be, to the extent possible, the Roman Catholic Ordinary, the Vicar General of the Ordinariate, the pastor of St. John Fisher Parish (or the priest administrator provided with the powers and faculties of a pastor if there is no Pastor) (the "Pastor") as appointed by the Ordinary, and two adult lay people who are members of the Parish and who are approved by the Ordinary.

3. The election of Directors, their removal or the filling of vacancies on the Board of Directors shall be in accordance with the Bylaws of the Corporation.

Acceptance By Registered Agent

Having been named as registered agent and to accept service of process for the above styled corporation at the place stated above, I hereby accept the appointment as registered agent and agree to act in this capacity. I further agree to comply with the provisions of the statutes relating to the proper and complete performance of my duties, and I am familiar with and accept the obligations of my position as registered agent.
