II.

The name of the corporation is Spirit Fuel Ministries Corporation.

III.

Said corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious and educational purposes, including, for such purposes, the conducting of religious worship and the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(C)3 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law.)

IV.

A. The affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its Board of Trustees also referred to as the Official Board. The Board shall be considered the government of the corporation. Each trustee shall hold office until he/she resigns, dies, or his Trusteeship is terminated by a majority vote of members of the Official Board in office, at which time a new Trustee will be elected by a quorum of the Official Board.

B. Nominations for potential new trustees shall be presented to the Board of Trustees via the President by December 1st of each year, or at such time as is designated by the Board. Candidates for membership on the Board of Trustees may be proposed by Trustees or by other interested individuals.

C. Qualifications for Trustees elected may be any adult at least 18 years of age and a member in good standing of Spirit Fuel Ministries Corporation. Professional experience and leadership qualities are sought out in trustees. Trustees need not be residents of Florida. The number of trustees shall be at least four (4).

D. Voting Any trustee present at a meeting of the Board may vote on any issue unless a personal conflict of interest exists, at which time the trustee shall be prohibited from participating in the discussion or voting on the transaction.

A majority of the Official Board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the board; but if less than a majority is present, the members may adjourn the meeting. The act of a majority of the Official Board shall be the act of the board unless the act of a greater number is required by law.

Notice of any special meeting of the Official Board shall be given at least five days previously thereto by written notice sent by mail, text or e-mail to each board member at his address/e-mail address as shown by the records of the corporation or may be called by the President via e-mail or text message immediately preceding the date set for such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail so addressed with postage thereon prepaid. Any board member may waive notice of any meeting. The
