(amended) ARTICLE III PURPOSE

This nonprofit corporation is organized and operated exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes as within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, for such purposes including, but not limited to, providing a stable, safe and caring environment; whereby, senior citizens, and / or disable persons needing care can live and share common goals as they age-in-place.

ARTICLE VIII NON-INUREMENT

(a) No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance, of the purposes set forth in ARTICLE III hereof.

(b) No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE IX
DISSOLUTION

Upon dissolution of the corporation, assets of the corporation shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets of the corporation not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the court of jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations.

ARTICLE X
MANNER OF ELECTION

The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by and under the direction of the Board of Directors. The number of Directors and the method of their election, appointment and/or removal shall be as set forth in the Bylaws.

ARTICLE XI DURATION

The period of duration of corporate existence of this corporation is perpetual.

ARTICLE XII LIMIT OF LIABILITY

The extent of personal liability, if any, for directors, officers, or members for corporate obligations and the methods of enforcement and collection, are as follows: NONE. Further, the Directors and Officers shall be exempt from liability and/or indemnified from costs and judgments to the full extent permitted by Florida law. In the event Florida law is subsequently amended to authorize the further elimination or limitation of the liability of Directors or Officers of nonprofit corporations, then the liability of Directors and Officers of the corporation in addition to the limitation on personal liability provided under this Article, shall be limited to the fullest extent by such later amended Florida law.
