ARTICLE III PURPOSE

The purpose for which the corporation is organized is:

In response to what Christ has accomplished, true believers are inspired by the Holy spirit to strive for the advancement of His kingdom. The purpose of Legacy Trust is to provide Christians with same and meaningful opportunities to further the gospel message through the encouragement and support of domestic and foreign missionaries, minister, ministries, and believers in their work to reach the world for Christ. The programs and plans used to accomplish this support shall be creative and unique to each mission as determined by the Board of Directors. Through these actions we pray to leave a legacy of cheerful and regular contributions to ministry and relief for fellow believers and of devotion to the world-wide spread of the gospel.

In furtherance of the foregoing, the corporation shall be operated exclusively for such charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, and no part of its net earnings (if any) shall inure to the benefit of any member, officer or director or any private individual (but the corporation may pay reasonable compensation for services rendered, reimburse any person for reasonable expenses incurred on behalf of the corporation, and make payments and distributions as provided in these Bylaws and/or the corporation Articles of Incorporation.) Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or b) by an organization contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law). The corporation will provide services to those in need regardless of race, gender, creed, color, sexual orientation, disability or religious preference.

ARTICLE IV MANNER OF ELECTION The manner in which the directors are elected and appointed: In order to be eligible to serve as a director on the board of directors, the individual must be 18 years of age with personal beliefs, goals, and vision to be served by the corporation.
